With Sincere Sympathy

Words are such poor things to express one's feelings at a time like this and there is so little that we can do, yet we hope our service may have helped in some small measure to bring you comfort.

We present this Memorial, hoping it will be a solace to you and yours in keeping cherished memories through the years.

Crossing the Bar

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place

*The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

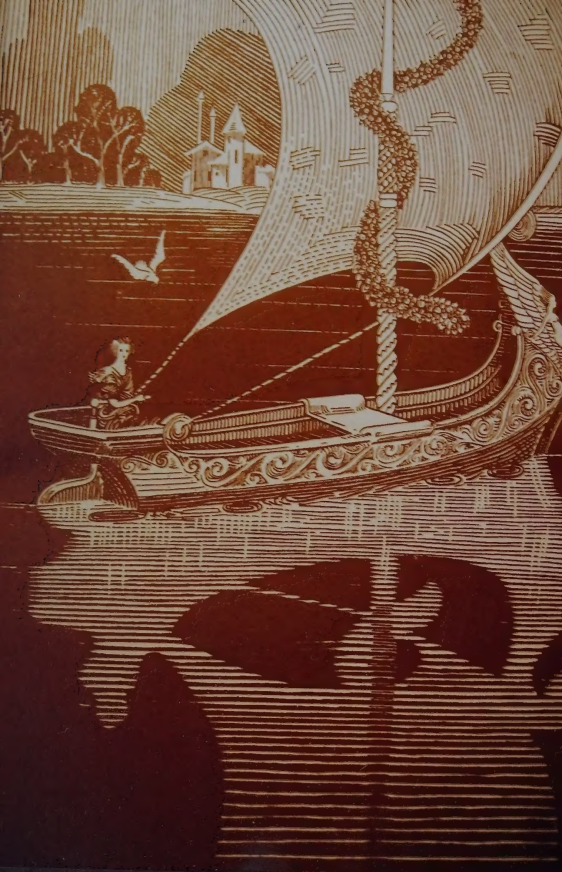

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Thine goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Frank

Margaret Ellen McKay was the daughter of ^{Frank} Straud and Nancy McKay, she was born May 26, 1856 near Converse, Indiana; and spent her girl hood days in that community along with with her five brothers and four sisters; knowing the joys of a large household, the life of this Quaker community and attending the Friends church.

She was united in marriage to A. D. Morris December 10, 1881, spending the remainder of her life here in Hamilton county. To this home was born five children – Larvey, Nellie, Straud, Maude and Cliff.

They say there is not a sphere that has not a woman in it; she has attained a high place in sphere of loving wife, mother, grandmother, friend and neighbor. Her life has had a yield of joy and woe, hope and fear, and her soul has seemed like one that understood how to balance joy and pain, and has borne her part nobly. For her personal abilities she was qualified above many, she was wise, discreet and well-spoken, of a very cheerful spirit, very sociable and pleasant among her friends.

On October 27, 1932, she departed this life; besides the husband and five children, eleven grandchildren, two sisters Misses Lavina and Eliza McMay and four brothers Charles, James, John and George McKay and a host of friends mourn her departure; but love for her will reign over Death as Tennyson says:

“Death, walking all alone beneath a yew,
And talking to himself, first met Love's sight.
'You must begone', said Death, 'These walks are mine.'
Love swept and spread his sheeny vans for flight
Yet ere he parted said, 'This hour is thine;
Thou art the shadow of life and as the tree
Stands in the Sun can't shadow all beneath
Stands in the light of great eternity
Life eminent created the shade of death
The shadow passeth when the tree shall fall
But I (Love) shall reign forever over all.”

Philadelphia, Pa., and Baltimore, Md. One son has blessed this union, Alan Adair, a bright and promising child. In the social circles of Anderson, Mr. Dunlap and his accomplished wife occupy a position of prominence, and are welcome guests in the best homes of the county.

NATHAN M. SYMONS, who follows farming on section 28, Clay Township, Hamilton County, is a native of Wayne County, Ind., and was born in 1829. His grandfather, Matthew Symons, was born in North Carolina, and was of English descent. His father emigrated to the United States in Colonial days. In 1818, Thomas removed to Wayne County, Ind., where he entered eighty acres of Government land and followed farming throughout the remainder of his life. In religious belief he was a Hicksite Quaker. His children were Thomas, Matthew, Ann; Mary, wife of Nathan Charles; Sarah, wife of William Briggs; and Margaret, wife of John Manlove.

The parents of our subject, Thomas and Abigail (Wilson) Symons, were both natives of North Carolina. She was a daughter of Joseph Wilson, who was supposed to be of Scotch lineage. Eight children were born unto them, of whom one died in infancy. The others were Rebecca, who died in her sixteenth year; Henry; Mary, wife of Lorenzo Waddell; Milton, deceased; Nathan M.; Mahlon, deceased; and Samuel. The father came to Indiana in 1818, and in 1837 located in Henry County, where he owned one hundred and sixty acres of land. His death there occurred in 1839, but his wife survived him many years. They were members of the Friends' Church, and in politics he affiliated with the Whig party.

No event of special importance occurred during the childhood and youth of our subject, which were quietly passed upon the home farm. From his father's estate he received eighty acres of land, and, after he had attained his majority he turned his attention to its cultivation. For several years he worked by the month as a farm hand. The year 1850 witnessed his arrival in Hamilton County, at which time he located upon his eighty-acre farm. The boundaries of this property he has extended until it now comprises one hundred and seventy acres under a high state of cultivation. He has erected good buildings upon the place and made all the improvements of a model farm.

At the age of twenty-six, in Hamilton County, Mr. Symons was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth C., daughter of Jonathan and Drusilla (Cox) Wilson. Three children graced their union: Alice D., who died at the age of eighteen; Louis, and Henry M. The sons now operate the farm for their father, who is practically living a retired life. He and his wife are faithful members and active workers in the Friends' Church. In politics he is a Republican, and has served as Township Trustee. He has led a busy and useful life, and his well directed efforts and fair dealings have brought him a handsome competence, which he well merits.

JAMES MORRIS, who owns and operates three hundred acres of land on section 1, White River Township, and is also extensively engaged in stock shipping, is a native of the Buckeye State. He was born in Ross County, December 16, 1830, and is a son of John and Sarah (Wyckoff) Morris. The father was born in Maryland, and at the age of twenty-three years left home, going on foot to Ohio, and working as a farm hand by the month until thirty years of age. He then married and rented land in Ross County, whence he removed to this county in 1836. In 1850, with the assistance of our subject, he bought a forty-acre farm, which he later sold, and purchased land near Arcadia, upon which he lived until his death, at the age of eighty-four. His wife was born in Ross County, and was a daughter of Samuel and Susan Wyckoff, natives of Virginia, who went to Ohio at a very early day. From the Government the father entered land, and upon the farm which he there developed he and his wife spent their remaining days.

James Morris was one of eight children, of whom two sons and four daughters are yet living. The brother, Samuel, served in the late war as a member of the One Hundred and Thirtieth Indiana Infantry, and the maternal grandfather was one of the heroes of the Revolution, receiving for his services a land grant.

The subject of this sketch remained upon the home farm until nineteen years of age, and then went to western Indiana, where he worked as a farm hand for $7 per month. He was afterward employed in a sawmill. On the 30th of June, 1853, he celebrated his marriage with Miss Elizabeth Taylor, who was born in Ohio, and died in Indiana in 1857, leaving two children, Riley and Mary. In 1858, Mr. Morris wedded Miss Sarah Cruzan, who was born in Rush County, Ind., and died in 1873. They had three children: Samuel, who is married and has one child; William A., a merchant of Strawtown; and Edward H., who is married and has one son. In 1874, Mr. Morris was a third time married, the lady of his choice being Susan Wárnica, who was born in Strawtown, Hamilton County, and passed away in 1891, at the age of forty years. They also had three children: Dora D., Rosa A. and Charles J.

Mr. Morris manifested his loyalty to the Government during the late war by donning the blue in July, 1862, and joining Company D, One Hundred and First Indiana. After two years he was transferred to the Nineteenth Battery, with which he served until the close of the war, when he was honorably discharged in Louisville, June 24, 1865. He was wounded at Chickamauga. A faithful soldier, always found at his post, he proved one of the valiant defenders of the Stars and Stripes that now float over a united nation.

On returning home, Mr. Morris spent about two years on a farm two miles east of Cicero, and rented land until 1875. He then bought one hundred acres on which was a log house, but lived in Strawtown until 1880, when he removed to his farm. Its boundaries have been extended until it now comprises three hundred acres of valuable land, which has been made to bloom and blossom as the rose. In connection with general farming, he also makes a specialty of shipping stock. In politics he was a Republican until 1873, since which time he has voted the Democratic ticket. He is numbered among the charter members of Cicero Post No. 207, G. A. R. Although quiet and unassuming in manner, he has nevertheless won the highest regard of all with whom he has come in contact, and no man in the community has more friends than James Morris.

ISAAC J. W. LEE. The subject of this biographical notice is an honorable and progressive farmer and stock-dealer, and as such no name in the memorial department of this work is more worthy of mention. Mr. Lee was born in Davie County, N. C., June 7, 1830, a son of Hillier and Elsie (Garner) Lee, also natives of the old North State. They came to Rush County, Ind., with their children in 1832, at which time their sole possessions were a team and wagon, together with the sum of thirty-seven cents in money. After remaining in Rush County four years, they came to Madison County, but during their stay in the former county they had saved enough money to enable them to purchase forty acres of land, which is now a part of the farm owned and occupied by the subject of this sketch. It was at that time covered by an unbroken forest, through which Mr. Lee had to cut a road by felling trees and clearing away the heavy, entangled undergrowth to the place where he desired to erect his cabin. After several years of laborious toil, and after enduring many hardships and the privations incident to pioneer life, he succeeded in clearing his land and in developing a rich and productive farm. He was very active in the affairs of his section in early days, and was one of the pioneers who laid the foundations for the magnificent commonwealth which Indiana is to-day. For many years he held the position of Supervisor and Assessor, and was a respected and influential citizen is honored alike by friend and foe, although the latter, if any, were few and far between. He

A letter came to the board yesterday that sets out the real situation that is found in many places in this country.

In J. Llewellyn, a machinist, 1426 1/2 street, had claimed exemption on the ground that he is the only support of his mother and sister. The board was sent to the mother, Mrs. J. Llewellyn, Henryville, for her signature. Yesterday her reply came to the board as follows:

I am mailing these papers back to you unsigned, as there are some statements in them I can not truthfully approve. My daughter and I are willing to drop the claim for exemption for my son, Irvin Llewellyn, if he is needed in the military service, as he is both willing to make a strong effort to live without his support. J. Llewellyn was placed in class No. 1 on the board.

DISTRICT BOARD AGAIN SHOWS

ANOTHER PLEADING FOR WEDDING

One registrant in the conscription draft appealed because he was placed in class two, feeling sure that the board here had made a mistake in classifying him. The return yesterday indicated that the board had made a mistake, for the appeal board placed the applicant in class one-A. Now, as a last resort, he is threatening to appeal to the president.

Another applicant who was placed in class one, did not object to his classification if the appeal board would let him remain at home until after the first of May. On that date he is arranging to be married and he does not feel that his services are so much needed at the front until that time as he is at home. Using his own language: "I would rather disappoint Uncle Sam than the girl."

measures like the one Dodd introduced Tuesday to redeploy all troops out of Iraq by April 30, 2008, other than a small force of unspecified size for tasks like protecting the U.S. embassy in Baghdad, said Democratic pollster Mark Mellman.

"As a candidate they can rally the public, they can put pressure on the White House, and they have done that, but at the end of the day the decisions get made by presidents," Mellman said. "And Bush has been singularly unwilling to listen to the will of Congress."

Jon Soltz, chairman of Votevets.org and an Iraq war veteran, said presidential candidates influence the debate, but the Democratic voice will be stronger once the nominee is chosen.

Internet tips and volunteers aid Steve Fossett search

The Associated Press

MINDEN, Nevada — The search for missing aviator Steve Fossett has generated Internet tips and drawn volunteer pilots, though whether the extra aid is helping or hurting the rescue effort is still an open question.

Driven by Fossett's fame and Google search technology that enables couch potatoes to view from their computers high-resolution photographs of the rugged Nevada landscape where he went missing, thousands of amateur volunteers are trying to help the hundreds of official searchers.

"This is kind of a new thing for us," Civil Air Patrol Maj. Cynthia Ryan said Monday, adding that every Google-generated tip is reviewed and the best ones passed on to pilots. So far, there have been several false sightings of Fossett's airplane.

Civil Air Patrol pilots lifted off early Tuesday to begin the search's ninth day, with fresh Gordon Shroll and he shared breakfast and optimism at the Taildragger Cafe.

A private search effort also is being driven in part by hotel magnate Barron Hilton, who has opened the mile-long airstrip at his Flying M Ranch to search planes and helicopters. Fossett took off from the ranch's runway more than a week ago.

While the private effort has worked side by side with the government during the eight-day hunt, officials said they are becoming worried that the latest call for volunteers could bring in people who are unfamiliar with the vast and often dangerous landscape.

"It has not been condoned, nor is it necessarily helpful to the law enforcement community," Lyon County Undersheriff Joe Sanford said Sunday. "We don't want searchers to have to go out to look for searchers."

On Monday, Sanford explained he was most concerned with the possibility that untrained searchers would

Come to Me

*God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."*

*You didn't deserve
what you went through
And so He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.*

*And when I saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.*

Jackson, who led a throng of people three blocks long to the courthouse with an American flag resting on his shoulder, likened the demonstration to the marches on Selma and the Montgomery bus boycott. But even he was not entirely sure why Jena became the focal point.

"You can never quite tell," he said. "Rosa Parks was not the first to sit in the front of the bus. But the sparks hit a dry field."

The noose incident was followed by fights between blacks and whites, culminating in December's attack on white student Justin Barker, who was knocked unconscious. According to court testimony, his face was swollen and bloodied, but he was able to attend a school function that same night.

Six black teens were arrested. Five were originally charged with attempted second-degree murder — charges that have since been reduced for four of them. The sixth was booked as a juvenile on sealed charges.

Martin Luther King III, son of the slain civil rights leader, said punishment of some sort may be in order for the six defendants, but "the justice system isn't applied the same to all crimes and all people."

People began massing for the demonstrations before dawn Thursday, jamming the two-lane highway leading into town and parking wherever they could. State police estimated the crowd at 15,000 to 20,000. Organizers said they believe it drew as many as 50,000.

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, and the other the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Woman dies from fire injuries

Jocelyn Matthews remained hospitalized after August blaze

By SHAWN MCGRATH

shawn.mcgrath@heraldbulletin.com

An Anderson woman critically injured after her home erupted in flames over a month ago has succumbed to her injuries.

Jocelyn Matthews, 36, died Wednesday at an Indianapolis hospital. Funeral arrangements are pending through Brown-Butz-Diedring Funeral Home, 515 E. 53rd St., Anderson.

Matthews was taken to Indianapolis' Wishard Hospital for treatment after she suffered severe burns when the fire broke out at the home she shared with her mother, 57-year-old Michelle Matthews, 4909 Columbus Ave., Anderson.

Firefighters were called to the single-story home shortly before 10 p.m. Aug. 13 after neighbors reported the fire, Jeff Freeman, Anderson Fire Department fire investigator, previously told The Herald Bulletin. He could not be reached for comment Wednesday.

Freeman said then that the home was fully engulfed when firefighters arrived. He said Michelle Matthews was sleeping in a bedroom when she heard her daughter call for help from the living room. Michelle Matthews tried to reach her daughter, but the smoke was too thick, Freeman said.

Michelle Matthews was able to escape the home, but suffered some burns. Her injuries weren't considered life-threatening, Freeman said.

Jocelyn Matthews was able to make it to near the home's front door, but wasn't able to make it out of the residence for unknown reasons. A neighbor saw the fire and was able to pull her out of the home.

Jocelyn Matthews was taken to an Anderson hospital, then transferred to Wishard due to her injuries. Citing health privacy laws, Freeman previously said he couldn't release what percentage of her body suffered burns.

Freeman said firefighters had the blaze under control in about 15 minutes. He said the cause of the fire remains under investigation, but appears to have started in the living room by a cigarette. He couldn't say if Jocelyn Matthews fell asleep while smoking.

Marilyn E. Morris

I was born on August 15, 1918 in a small farm house on 8th Street road just East of Strawtown, Indiana. We moved to Tipton County some time later, then to Hamilton County Northeast of Noblesville approximately ½ mile, located just Northwest corner across from the elementary school. This was the first house that we had electricity! I was probably three or four years old and I had to wear metal braces on my legs because I was club-footed. I got rid of those before I started school.

We attended school number 9 located about five Northeast of Noblesville where we had one teacher, Mrs. Roudebush, for all eight grades. We had a pot-bellied stove to heat the school. My oldest brother Gib and Eddie Barker were responsible for firing the stove since they were the big 8th grade boys. Parents brought in food that was heated on the stove so we could have a hot lunch: beans, vegetable soup, chili etc.

We had our first car, (a Model ~~A~~ Touring Ford 1925 probably) with side curtains and oh boy that was something after always having a horse (old Chet) and buggy to travel in.

My Dad did general farming plus tomato and watermelon. I remember a plane landing on back of the farm to take riders for $5.00 but my Dad wouldn't let me go and I was really disappointed.

We moved to Fishers in 1927 out Northeast of town in the area East of Reynolds Farm Equipment. We only lasted there one year and moved North of Carmel. We finished the school year at Fishers by driving a horse and buggy about five miles across the White River Covered bridge on what is now 116th street.

Carmel was like Fishers with all twelve grades in one building. Gib was on the basketball and baseball teams at Fishers but when he went to Carmel they said he had a heart murmur and wouldn't let him play basketball. The gym at Fishers was on the second floor of a hardware store; had maybe 125 seats and we were pretty good at home.

Dad was some kind of boss for the county road maintenance so in the summer we worked on rebuilding the gravel roads in the area. River Road was one of them we worked with horses and plow (for side ditches) and a slip scoop. I would stand in the doubletree to drive the horses and Dad handled the plow (walking plow). The horses knew more about it than I did so it was pretty easy but tiring, since we would get up at 4:00am to start the day.

We didn't have a radio so we would go to the neighbors' house to listen to the basketball State Tourney. We lived at Carmel for two years. My Mother was so homesick there it was terrible.

The, in March of 1929, Dad heard of a farm out East of Pendleton on Highway 38 about 3 ½ miles and he rented it from a Mr. George Kinnard, a fine retired gentleman farmer at that time in Pendleton. It was a good 180 acre farm and we did all the farming with horses. Dad kept 6 to 8 head most of the time. We also raised strawberries, lots of them. We would pick as many as 200-250 quarts some days. Mom would make up to 100 quarts of strawberry jam and of course we ate all of them with homemade bread and butter.

We did all of our own butchering of hogs and sometimes beef steer. Aunts, uncles and grandparents would pitch in usually the very coldest day of winter. I always wanted to stay home from school that day and I got lucky once or twice!

We rode to school in a 1929 Model T Ford driven by Mr. Johnny Rogers. It only had a manifold heater in it. Highway 38 was a toll road then known also as the New Castle to Lafayette Pike. I think it was the first blacktopped road in the late 30's. One of my early days at Pendleton schools, I was standing in the school yard one day when I saw these two trains coming head on. I turned my back, not wanting to see the big crash, but nothing happened. They just went right past one another. I had no idea there were two tracks up there!

There was a second old house on the farm and we had Halloween parties in it. There was a fireplace in every room.

The Depression in the early 30's took a toll on everyone. Corn sold for 10 cents a bushel and even gasoline was 10 gallons for a dollar.

I graduated from Pendleton in 1933. There were twenty-seven of us in the class. We went to the World's Fair in Chicago that summer (a whole school bus load).

There was a big barn on the farm and we had neighborhood basketball on Sunday afternoons. We would have fifteen or twenty guys show up. That was our entertainment because we had no money or car. During the week we would pitch horseshoes. Chet would beat me most of the time, but I got better.

I got to know a Walter Lane somehow through pitching horseshoes and he gave me a job at the Anderson Playground shop where he was a foreman. We had inter-city horseshoe matches and the City of Anderson built twenty lighted courts for us in Athletic Park. By the way, we won most of the time. We played in A.A.U. Tournaments in Cincinnati, Chicago and Staten Island, New York, where I beat the New York State champ and went on to win fourth place. One of our other players, Herbert Winkle, went on to win the tournament.

While we were there, we took a ferry over to the big city and went to Radio City Music Hall to see the Rockettes! What a show for us country boys! We were invited to breakfast by Mayor LaGuardia, but we were unable to accept the invite due to our schedule. This was in 1937 or 1938.

The neighborhood had a thrashing ring for harvesting wheat and oats. And everybody pitched in to get the harvest done and then we would have a big ice cream social.

We also had a softball team in the Summer and we won the 4-H tourney two or three times. One of the guys on the team bought a bailer and we worked for him on some of the hottest days of the year. One of those hot days my sister brought me a card asking me to come to Delco-Remy. I was happy but that only lasted a short time and I was laid off.

About a year later Wilbur Hulce of Delco-Remy bought a farm Southeast of Pendleton and he came to our house to get some help cleaning up the farm. He would drive down from Anderson every day and take Chet and I to lunch at Fuqua's restaurant on the Northeast corner of Highways 38 and 67. When we were about finished on the farm, he asked us if we would like to work at the factory. Of course we said "Yes", not knowing his position. He told us to go to the employment office and see Mr. Mason and to use his name as a reference. That was on Wednesday and on Friday night we both had jobs at Delco starting a 37 ½ cents per hour. Worked a short time there and was laid off, a big disappointment. By then Chet and I had bought a new two-door Chevy for $637.00.

In 1940 we moved to Converse on one of the McKay farms (my great aunts and uncles). Dad was supposed to manage the farms for them, but that didn't work out.

While I was there I went to work at Firestone Rubber in Wabash for 42 ½ cents per hour molding hot rubber. Talk about a sweat shop! One day when I was there, two other employees and I were sent to the park to hit, as hard as we could, six softballs a hundred times each and then bring them back to be checked. Talk about a hard day's work!

After a year in Converse, we moved back Pendleton on Highway 38 out East of town in Adams township. A short time after we came back, I was called back to Delco, this time I stayed. I later met Micki and married her.

I remember when Choe came to our house

8) he & Dad put hook down the well -

They tied the container to the rope & lowered it in. They went hunting & when they come back they couldn't find Chet but they heard him hollering.

Chet had shinned down the rope at the well & couldn't get back up.

I remember when the old folks listened to the radio up at Converse. - They had an old Crosley - It would get Woud (7+ Wayne) - Chicago & Cincinnati

Come to Me

*God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."*

*You didn't deserve
what you went through
And so He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.*

*And when I saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.*

Ivy Tech head ready for debut

By JUSTIN SCHNEIDER

justin.schneider@heraldbulletin.com

Tom Snyder is getting down to business.

Even as questions over the propriety and legality of his hiring swirl, Ivy Tech Community College's latest president is preparing for his July 1 debut. Snyder was hired on March 22 and already has begun touring Ivy Tech's 23 campuses.

"I've been supportive of the process and I will let it take its course," Snyder said en route to the Kokomo campus. "The open access counselor wants more public discussion than is currently legislated, but I'm comfortable either way."

Last week, Indiana's public access counselor determined the Ivy Tech board acted illegally during the hiring process. On Monday, the board announced it will revisit the matter on April 19, but Snyder won't wait to get started.

He has already been to Lafayette and Indianapolis locations and planned to meet with officials from Muncie and Anderson today.

BUSINESS BRIEF

Snyder's diversity work recognized

INDIANAPOLIS — The Greater Indianapolis Branch NAACP 3053 honored Ivy Tech Community College President Thomas J. Snyder at its 45th annual Freedom Fund banquet.

Snyder, of Anderson, received an Outstanding Achievement Award for his work to fostering diversity at the college. Snyder hired the college's first vice president for diversity, equity and inclusion and commissioned a study that resulted in a proposal to create a statewide diversity program. The college has a minority student enrollment of over 25,000 students.

The college has also increased the level of Minority Business Enterprise and Woman-Owned Business Enterprise purchases by 93 percent since 2007.

Ivy Tech is one of Indiana's largest and fastest growing colleges and serving more than 200,000 students at 32 campuses and 100 learning centers.

Longtime volunteer wins community service honor

ANDERSON — Bobbette Snyder, former director of the Leadership Academy of Madison County, recently received the Madison County Bar Association's annual Community Service Award for "outstanding volunteerism and contribution of time and advocacy," according to a press release from the Madison County Community Foundation.

Snyder founded the Festival of Trees as a fundraiser for the Paramount Theatre Centre and Ballroom. She has served on many boards, including those of the community foundation, the United Way of Madison County and St. Vincent Anderson Regional Hospital. Snyder is an Athena Award winner and a Sagamore of the Wabash.

Along with the Community Service Award, a donation of $1,900 was given to the non-profit of Snyder's choice, the leadership academy.

The award and donation are funded through an endowment by longtime Anderson attorney Charles H. Dickmann and his widow, Hazel.

Ivy Tech ratifies Snyder as president

The Herald Bulletin

Thomas Snyder is still Ivy Tech Community College's new president. The board of trustees ratified Snyder as the new leader Thursday in a 14-0 vote.

"I was confident in the process; I'm pleased to get a unanimous ratification by the board," he said.

In early April, the state's public access counselor said that the Ivy Tech Community College board had violated open-door laws in the process used to hire Snyder.

But Stephen Key, general counsel to the Hoosier State Press Association, told The Herald Bulletin at the time that Snyder's new position wasn't in jeopardy because the hiring would almost certainly not be overturned in a court of law.

Karen Davis, the public access counselor, issued a ruling that the Ivy Tech board had broken the law by taking two polls behind closed doors.

The board was not allowed under state law to take final action on the choice in the private executive session it held last month, as those votes must be held in public. However, Davis wrote in a formal, non-binding opinion that both times the board members expressed opinions they took final action.

Snyder will oversee the operations of the state's second largest postsecondary institution of higher education and also serve as the president of the Ivy Tech Foundation starting July 1, 2007.

Snyder served as the president of Delco Remy International Inc. in Anderson from 1994 to 2006 and is currently the chairman of the Flagship Energy Systems Center.

Snyder will replace Gerald I. Lamkin, who announced that he would step down as president on June 30, 2007.

Snyder said he and Lamkin would be visiting the Anderson Ivy Tech sometime in June when Lamkin makes his farewell tour of the state's campuses.

The daughter of an Indiana State senator was killed in a three-vehicle crash on Interstate 69 early Thursday in Delaware County.

Shanna S. Branch, 29, Indianapolis, the daughter of state Sen. Timothy Skinner, D-Terre Haute, was pronounced dead at the scene of the crash in the northbound lanes of I-69 near the Indiana 67 interchange, close to Daleville shortly before 9:30 a.m., said Delaware County Sheriff's Cpl. Ken Lopez.

Lopez said Branch was driving a Hyundai Accent in the passing lane of northbound I-69 when traffic slowed to a near stop because of an over-size vehicle traveling on the interstate.

Branch was rear-ended by a 1995 International semitrailer driven by 21-year-old David P. Vaughn, Liberty, Tenn. The impact then pushed Branch's car into a 1994 Peterbuilt tractor-trailer driven by John F. Rivers, Defiance, Ohio.

Lopez said Branch was killed instantly. He said she was wearing a seatbelt, and the airbags in her vehicle deployed.

Vaughn's tractor-trailer then struck River's semi before going into the median, according to Lopez. Both drivers suffered minor injuries in the collision.

Lopez said the crash was apparently caused by driver inattention, but he cautioned that the collision remains under investigation. He said there didn't seem to be any preliminary indications that drugs or alcohol may have contributed to the crash.

"Our investigation is still pending," he

Bobbette Snyder recruits new leaders

By Emma Bowen Meyer
For The Herald Bulletin

Being a born leader, Bobbette Snyder realizes the impact that a whole team of leaders can have on the community. Therefore, she has dedicated the last 18 years to shaping influential individuals and launching them into local neighborhoods to create a better atmosphere for all.

As the executive director of the Leadership Academy of Madison County, Snyder recruits new leaders, raises funds for the organization, attends sessions, and networks in the community to place her alumni in positions to serve.

"(My favorite part of the job is) seeing those classes develop as a team and getting to know them and the difference they will make in the community," said Snyder, also owner of Vision Now innovative consulting. "And when I look at a group of volunteers, a lot of them are graduates of the program that are willing to step up into the roles they are trained for."

Snyder is not only a graduate of Anderson High School and Ball State University; she also completed the Leadership Academy in 1991. By 1993 she was on staff.

But she was a leader long before her training. Naturally able to organize and motivate people, she began The Festival of Trees in 1989.

"We were able to buy the theatre from the city for a dollar but then we needed money to renovate it," said Snyder, mother of four and grandmother of 10. "Fort Wayne already had a similar festival so we drove up there and saw what they were doing. Now it has grown and morphed into so many things that are great for the community. I always have at least one tree in the festival."

Snyder and her husband, Tom, president of Ivy Tech, also played integral roles in retaining Remy's presence in Madison County and growing Ivy Tech.

"When I drive through Anderson and I see Remy, and then I see Ivy Tech, and then I meet the over 500 business leaders and community leaders that are taking this city and its people into the future, I see Bobbette Snyder," said Bill Nagengast, director of operations of Continental, Inc. "You cannot live here and not feel the benefits of Bobbette's work. It literally cannot be done. Few have done more than Bobbette for Madison County, and no one deserves the Athena Award in 2011 more than Bobbette Snyder."

"It is very gratifying to be nominated," said Snyder. "I'm pretty humbled that my name still pops up occasionally and I'm grateful he thought of me."

Animal shelter is about people too

By Sam Brattain
The Herald Bulletin

ANDERSON — 2011 has been a year full of exciting changes for the Anderson Animal Protection League (APL) and its director, Maleah Stringer.

In March, the APL was granted control of the Anderson Animal Shelter by the city's Safety Board, despite being denied twice by the city council. Looking back, Stringer, who is a finalist for the 2011 Athena Award, said it was a "great example" of people coming together, despite political ideologies, to support a common cause.

"It's pretty powerful to have people get involved, considering how everything is politicized in Anderson," Stringer said.

Stringer said she was the "ignitor," but getting control of the shelter couldn't have happened without the community's support.

"They kept coming to the meetings, kept making phone calls," Stringer said.

Stringer said she feared that those who supported her through the process would disappear once they achieved their goal, but that has not been the case. When a shed was donated in August to the shelter for a cat rescue house, Stringer said, volunteers came out to paint and decorate.

Holly Miller, who nominated Stringer for the award, said she's admired Stringer's passion for animals.

"She does it very logically, she's a good thinker, and she's a businesswoman," Miller said.

Stringer said an animal shelter is not always a "very happy" place, considering there is a growing number of pets in need of owners, and only so many owners. When asked how she deals with it, Stringer responded, "not very well, it gets harder and harder."

Though she deals with animals, Stringer said her work is just as much about people.

"Animals help us heal, keep us from being lonely, and give us unconditional love," Stringer said.

Saint John's Prepares for Surgical Center Project

$24 Million Investment

Saint John's Health System is preparing to invest $24 million in Madison County to build a new, state-of-the-art surgical services center on the south end of Saint John's Medical Center. The new surgical center will be adjacent to Saint John's new Emergency Department, opened in 2007.

Aults Tapped as Chairpersons

Jim and Marilyn Ault were selected to lead a capital campaign through Saint John's Foundation to raise at least $1.5 million in gifts toward the surgery facility's construction. Jim retired from General Motors after a distinguished career managing divisions in Indiana, Michigan, New York and France. The Aults have been recognized locally for their community service by the Madison County Bar Association, the Rotary Club, and the United Way of Madison County. Their affiliation with Saint John's includes Jim's service on the Saint John's Board of Trustees and Finance Committee. Marilyn is a past president of the Saint John's Victoria Guild. For the past several years, they have co-chaired the Saint John's Golf Classic, which benefits the Saint John's Children's Clinic.

"We are honored to have been asked to lead this effort and are excited about this $24 million investment in the future of our county. We've had a long association with the hospital starting with Marilyn being born at Saint John's, as were our two sons," said Jim Ault. "It's just a first class organization and we are thrilled to help."

"Jim and Marilyn Ault are true community servant-leaders," said Saint John's President Tom VanOsdol. "They exemplify the committed and caring volunteer support that Saint John's has enjoyed since 1894. I am personally so grateful they accepted the invitation to co-chair this campaign for Saint John's."

Saint John's currently performs more than 11,000 surgeries annually in three facilities: the inpatient and outpatient surgery department built in 1968 in Saint John's Medical Center, Saint John's Surgery Center at 2210 Jackson St., and the Saint John's Orthopedic Surgery Center, located in the Central Indiana Orthopedics building at I-69 and Exit 22. The Saint John's Orthopedic Surgery Center, built in 2003, will not be affected by this project.

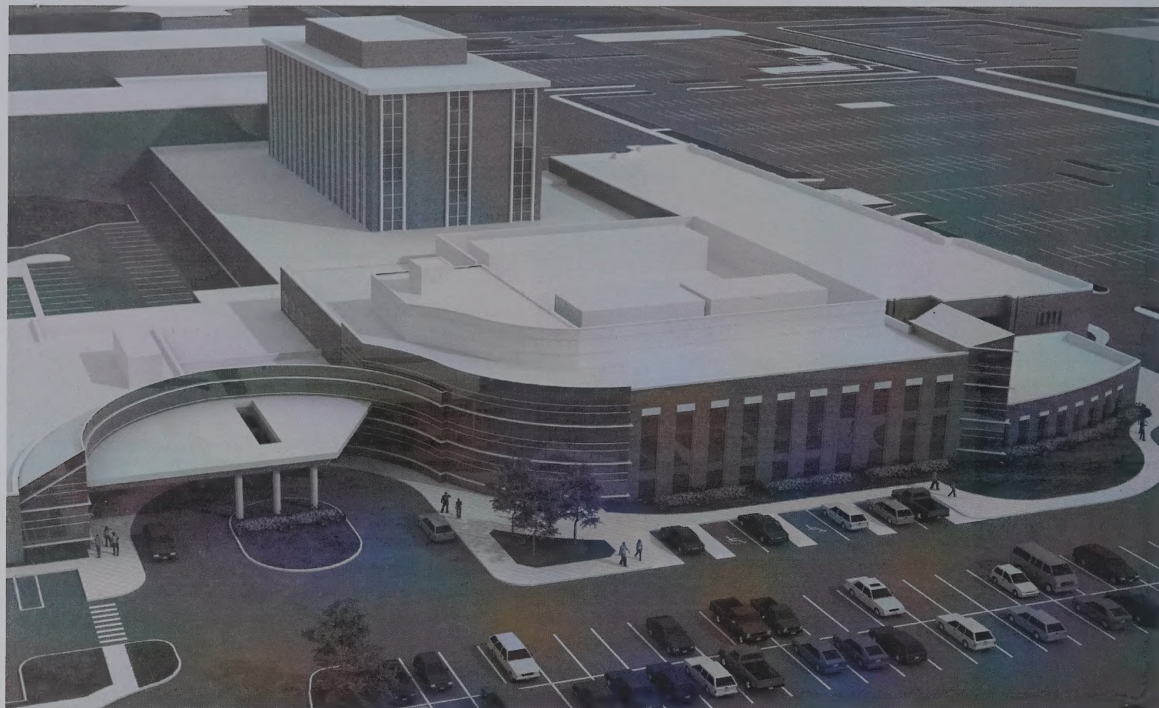

Replaces 1968 OR

The new surgical facility will replace the 1968 department in the medical center and the outpatient surgery center opened in 1985. It will be done in phases, and existing facilities will not be closed until the new one is open. Saint John's will continue to provide inpatient and outpatient surgical services throughout construction. Saint John's team of surgeons and staff are currently working with architects to design the facility. Construction will begin in the Fall of 2011.

"Saint John's has invested in advanced surgical technology, and our skilled physicians and staff are adept at using it," said VanOsdol. "We need this new facility because the current surgical area in the 1968 facility does not provide adequate space to accommodate the growing surgical volume and newer technology that requires larger operating suites," he explained. "The new facility will provide larger surgical areas and will increase the number of operating rooms."

Surgery Project

"Over the years, the practice of medicine has changed a great deal. Today the size of our rooms does not accommodate comfortably the equipment and personnel needed. Spacious suites and facilities will allow better flow and more efficient movement of surgical equipment and medical staff," said Dr. Khalil Wakim, surgeon.

Surgical Services Director Duane Cox said, "The surgery construction project will provide additional needed space and allow greater operational efficiency of surgical services offered in the Medical Center and at the Surgery Center." He explained that the project will include at least nine spacious operating rooms for inpatient and outpatient surgeries. "We will have easier accessibility to patients, increased privacy for patients and staff, and greater flexibility. A warm and comfortable waiting area will welcome families, and a new chapel-like space will provide a place for prayer and meditation," Cox added.

"We're proud of the surgical expertise we offer to the community," VanOsdol said. "Saint John's physicians and staff perform most general surgical procedures and many specialized procedures, including total joint replacement, vascular surgery, neurosurgery, and surgeries in specialty fields such as obstetrics/gynecology, urology, thoracic surgery, ear, nose and throat, and ophthalmology. Saint John's has been among the first to bring many surgical procedures to the county. This will assist us in recruiting and retaining surgeons and anesthesiologists and allow us to continue bringing the latest in surgical excellence to our community."

Saint John's has been recognized nationally for surgical excellence. The organization has been five-star rated for joint replacement surgery the past three years by HealthGrades the nation's leading healthcare rating organization (healthgrades.com)

HealthGrades Recognizes Saint John's Services

5-Star Rating for Joint Replacement

Saint John's Health System's Joint Replacement program has received a 5-star rating for the third year in a row (2009-2011) from HealthGrades, the leading independent healthcare ratings organization. The designation indicates that Saint John's Health System's Joint Replacement outcomes are better than predicted. The HealthGrades study, an analysis of patient outcomes in the nation's 5,000 hospitals, found that 5-star-rated hospitals had, on average, an 80% lower rate of complications than hospitals receiving a 1-star rating.

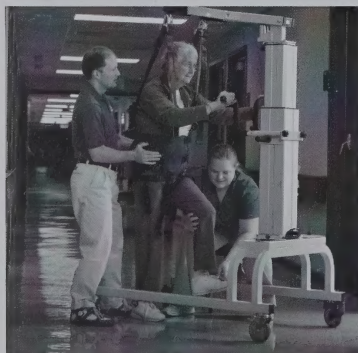

Millions of patients rely on HealthGrades' hospital ratings to find the highest quality hospitals in their communities. This is because HealthGrades ratings and awards are based solely on clinical performance.

This study also showed that Saint John's Health System receives a five-star rating in Total Knee Replacement for the third year in a row.

Outstanding Patient Experience Award

In a study released earlier this year Saint John's Health System received the Outstanding Patient Experience Award, which places Saint John's in the Top 10% of the nation for the third year in a row.

"We at Saint John's Health System are once again extraordinarily pleased to have earned this distinction from HealthGrades," said Saint John's President Tom VanOsdol. "Our exceptional and preferential results are achieved only through the collaborative efforts of all of our physicians and associates involved in the entire care team. Our scores continue to differentiate Saint John's as the quality leader, which is our aim each and every day."

HANNAH MORRIS TRUE PIONEER
Born in Hamilton County 81 Years Ago

SAW THE INDIANS

Married Louis Morris in 1849 and was the Mother of ten Children – Say County Reclaimed from Wilderness

Mrs. Hannah Morris, who died Thursday, January 14 at the home of her son, Frank, near Strawtown, was one of the pioneer women of Hamilton County and was the last of the family of Henry Foland, who came to Hamilton County from Whitewater, Va., about 1830.

Hannah Foland was born in White River Township in 1832. Her father, Henry, had entered 525 acres of land in that section.

She was left an orphan when six years old and she lived with various families under a guardian until she was seventeen years when she became the bride of Louis Morris, a young farmer.

The young couple worked hard, reared a large family bought a fine farm. The husband and father died in 1878. At the time of her death, Mrs. Morris owned 120 acres of the original 525 acres entered by her father in 1830.

She was the last of a family of five children. Washington, Ephraim, James, and Charlotte Foland. James was the treasurer of the County.

Mrs. Morris was the mother of ten children, one child dying in infancy, one at the age of fifteen, and one at the age of 23.

The seven children surviving are: Walter W., Annan D., James, and Frank P. Morris and Mrs. Oscar Snyder all of whom live in this county and Mrs. Isaac Miesse and Priscilla Morris, who live at Greencastle.

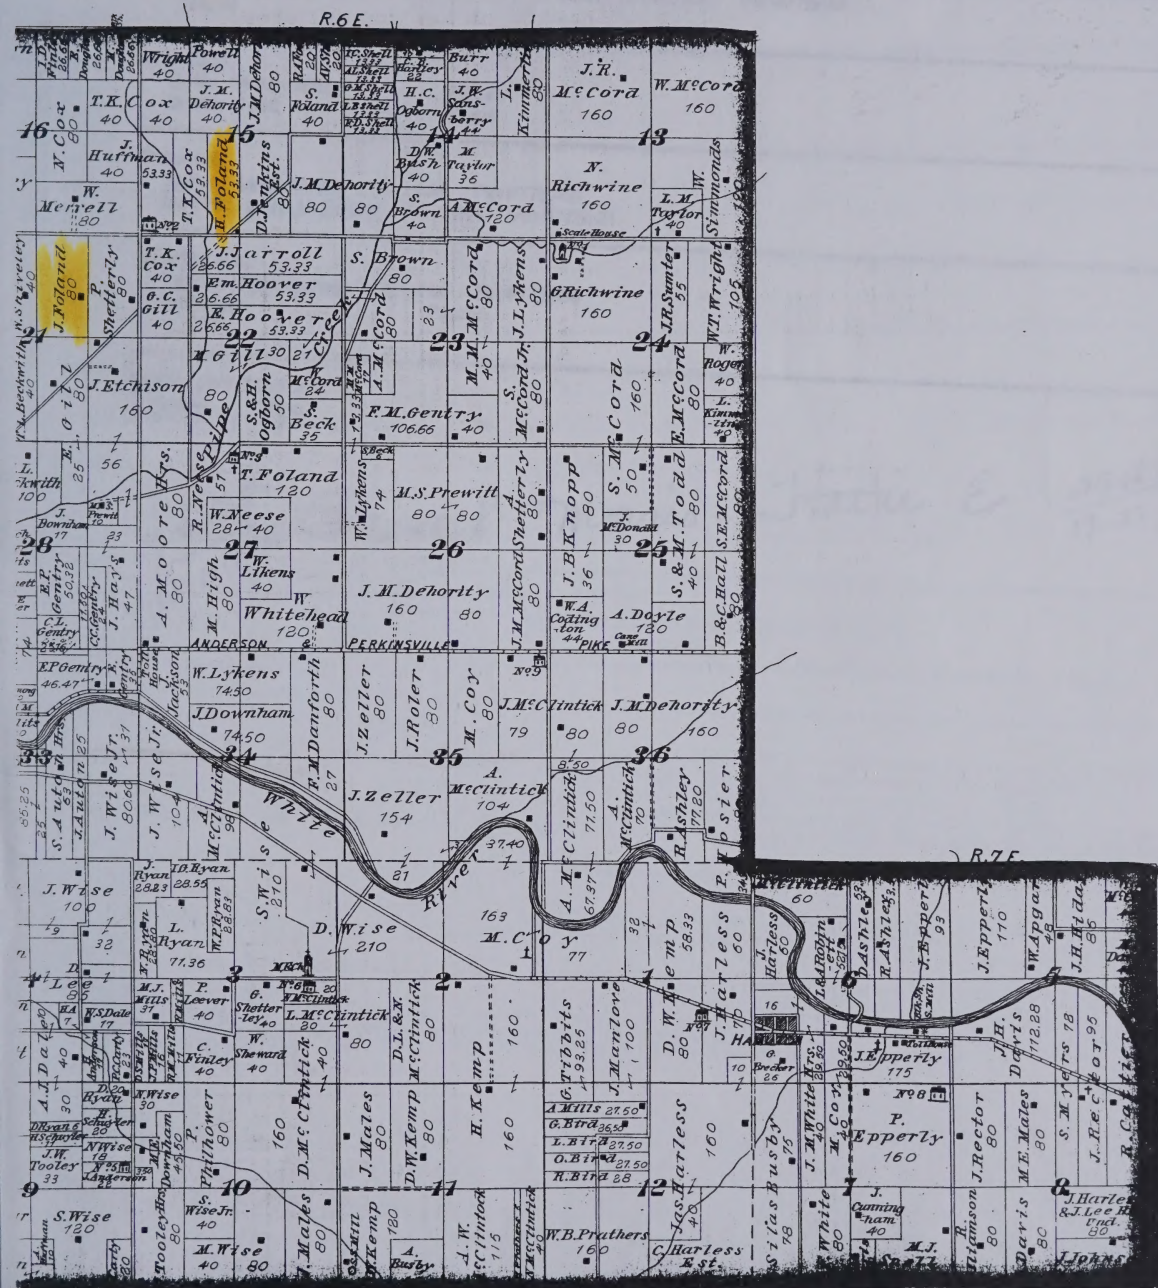

Mrs. Morris lived all her 83 years in Hamilton County except two years in Madison County.

As a little girl 75 years ago, she saw the Indians visit Strawtown, The country was practically all in timber except for a few clearings here and there. There were no modern improvements which she lived to see and enjoy.

Her mother used a wooden milk trough 80 years ago, built into the mud through spring water flowed. Crocks of milk and butter were placed in the trough. This trough was used by Mrs. Morris until two years ago and the planks are still preserved by her sons.

McKAY

1850 ————— 1951

Aunt Lavina McKay & Daughter Edith King

In Remembrance

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. e

Memories by Wanda McKay - wife of Philip McKay

I remember the story Vine &
Lisa told about cleaning house.
Vine drug the mattress & buried it
Lisa come out from upstairs & laughed that's where I put the $500 from town last week.

3-24 07
memories from Chet Morris about Uncle Jack McKay
When Jack would get excited he'd say
"Oh my God boy"

The story goes Jack would have a prospective hired hand walk behind him down a path. He drop a quarter,
1/2 dollar out a hole in his pocket
If hired man picked it up & returned it - He was hired.
